The aim of this genealogical history is to preserve for posterity the record of the descendants and some of the ancestors of John Edwin Darby and Charlotte (Lottie) Amelia (Bremerman) Darby, his wife. Due to the fact that John Edwin's father died when John was three or four years old very little is known concerning his ancestors. Search has been done in Maryland Historical Records and it is now with a feeling of great satisfaction that we know his parents and some of his grandparents, facts well hidden in the history of Maryland.

This history is not as complete as we had wished but perhaps we had hoped for too much in too short a time. Research is continuing on the ancestral names of Darby, Bremerman, Trout, Harris and others as we trace on back.

We have enjoyed corresponding with and hearing from various cousins, uncles and aunts with whom we had lost contact down through the years. We are very grateful for their co-operation and encouragement. No family genealogy history could be written without the help of many individuals. I especially want to pay tribute to Elizabeth Mae (Cameron) (Darby) Cropp, my mother, deceased 23 April 1962, and to Anna (Darby) Burgert, my aunt. Their keen recollection of dates, events, relationships, etc., have been of inestimable value.

The descendants of John Edwin Darby are listed in chronological order by families, carrying each family through to the present time. A family descendant chart has been prepared to enable you to better follow the lineage.

It is my hope, some four or five years from now, to revise this history and add to it the results of further research on our ancestry. It would help immensely if each of you would keep me informed of future births, deaths, marriages, etc.

TO CARRY FORWARD THE GOOD NAME OUR FOREDEARS GAVE US, TO LEAVE IT AS HONORABLE AS IT WAS GIVEN US, AND TO IMPRESS OUR CHILDREN AND GRANDCHILDREN WITH ITS VALUE -- THIS IS OUR CHALLENGE AND RESPONSIBILITY.

EARL G. DARBY

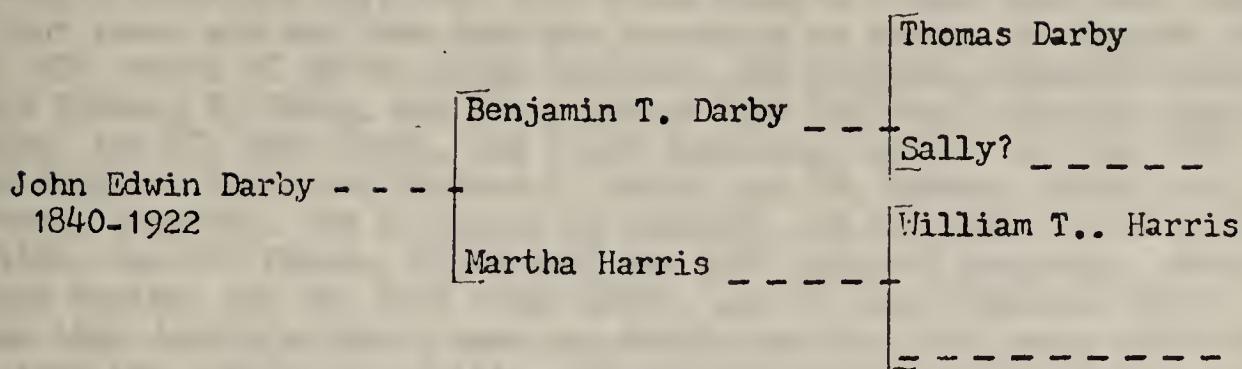

HISTORY OF DARBY

The Darby surname was taken from the city and shire called Derby in Central England. Derby came from the Norse 'Dyr-Bye', which was interpreted as 'The Honorable Man's Farm'. The names of tax payers compiled under King Henry III in 1272 lists William de Darby.. The lineage who spells the name Darby became Barons. They resided many centuries in Shropshire. The Darby coat of arms is a shield covered with a blue and white chevron on which there are three eagles. The Darby motto is 'Howsoever God Pleases'.

There were many Darbys in America in 1790 as given in the census. We find the name Darby with seven different spellings, namely: Darby, Darbay, Darbe, Darbey, Derbe, Derbey and Derby. In 1790 there were 110 'Heads of Families' or householders with 422 members of those same households. These households were located as follows: 3 in Maine, 11 in Connecticut, 13 in Vermont, 32 in Massachusetts, 14 in New York, 2 in Pennsylvania, 26 in Maryland and 17 in North Carolina. From: Century of Population Growth, page 236.

To date research has found our Darby ancestors in Maryland on the east shore of Chesapeake Bay only in Somerset County, a part of which became Wicomico County in 1867.

ANCESTORS OF JOHN EDWIN DARBY

On the 17th day of April 1845, a certain Isaac Harris by John W. Crisfield, Esq., his solicitor exhibits to the court here his bill of complaint, which ensues as follows to wit: To the Honorable the Judges of Somerset County Court of Chancery sitting. The bill of complaint of Isaac Harris of Dorchester County respectfully states that William Harris late of Somerset County died seized of real estate lying and being in said county leaving the following persons his heirs at law to wit

William I. Harris

Mary Elizabeth wife of John T. Darby

Sally Priscilla wife of Joseph Wright

Martha Harris later intermarried with Benjamin T. Darby and your orator Isaac Harris.

To whom the said real estate descended that said William T. Harris on 24 May 1839 preferred his petition to Somerset County Court for a division of the said real estate according to the Act to direct descents and in pursuance thereof a commission issued on 3 June 1839 to divide or value the real estate, which was valued at $4,483.50 and the court in 1841 ratified the proceedings and John T. Darby in right of his wife Mary Elizabeth elected to take the whole estate at the valuation. From: Chancery Record, Liber W. P. No. 1, folio 168, Princess Anne, Maryland.

John T. Darby and Mary Elizabeth his wife to Richard P. Darby and Benjamin T. Darby for $700.00 do sell John T. Darby's part of the real estate of his father Thomas Darby. From: Liber 061 - Deeds, folio 160 - December 4, 1841.

John W. Taylor from John B. Clemens, Sheriff - Whereas the Bank of Salisbury, Maryland had a judgement for $500.00 against a certain Benjamin T. Darby, yoeman, and had his land sold a tract called Darby's Lot; part of Taylor's Addition and Bachelor's Folly containing 130 acres. From: Liber 062 - Deeds, folio 186 - December 6, 1843.

Family tradition says that John Edwin Darby's father died when John was three or four years old and that John was raised by an uncle. To support this tradition, the 1850 census of Barren Creek District, 2nd Division, Somerset County, Maryland lists Richard P. Darby, age 32, a farmer with $5500 real property and with the names Martha, age 27; John Edwin, age 9 and Sophronia, age 7. In the 1860 census of the same district is listed Richard P. Darby, age 40, farmer, $12000 real and $1000 personal property. He is listed by himself. In the same census is found a - English, age 40, farmer, $1300 real and $500 personal property. Under his name is listed Martha, age 38; John Edwin Darby, age 18; and Sophronia Darby, age 17. It is known that John's mother's name was Martha and that she later married a Mr. English and they had a daughter, Nettie. It is also known by John Edwin's children that down through the years he corresponded with both Sophronia and Nettie.

John Edwin was born in 1840. Search has been done in deed transfers from 1841 to 1851 in Somerset County and many transactions involving Darbys are recorded. Some are as follows: John T. Darby and wife to Richard and Benjamin T. Darby; John T. Darby to Richard P. Darby; Benjamin T. Darby to Richard P. Darby; Richard P. and Benjamin T. Darby to John T. Darby and wife; Richard P. Darby to John T. Darby. The above deals were for the years 1841 to 1843 inclusive. No further recorded deeds involve the name Benjamin T. Darby although there are many more entries concerning the other named Darbys. Your writer, knowing John Edwin's father died when the child was three or four years, and noting the absence of Benjamin's name in any real estate deals after 1843, drew a tentative conclusion that Benjamin T. was the father of John Edwin. Later verification of this conclusion is found on page 4.

George Roy Darby, 7th child of John Edwin and Charlotte, told your writer some time ago that he remembered an advertisement in a farm journal of the largest strawberry farm in the world at Salisbury, Maryland owned by some Allens whom he thought were somehow related to the Darbys. A letter to Allens of Strawberry Fame, Salisbury brought an answer from Fulton J. Allen, grandson of Sophronia (Darby) Taylor. He sent a family tree of the descendants of Sophronia and he is attempting to locate a Darby bible or two among his many cousins, uncles and aunts.

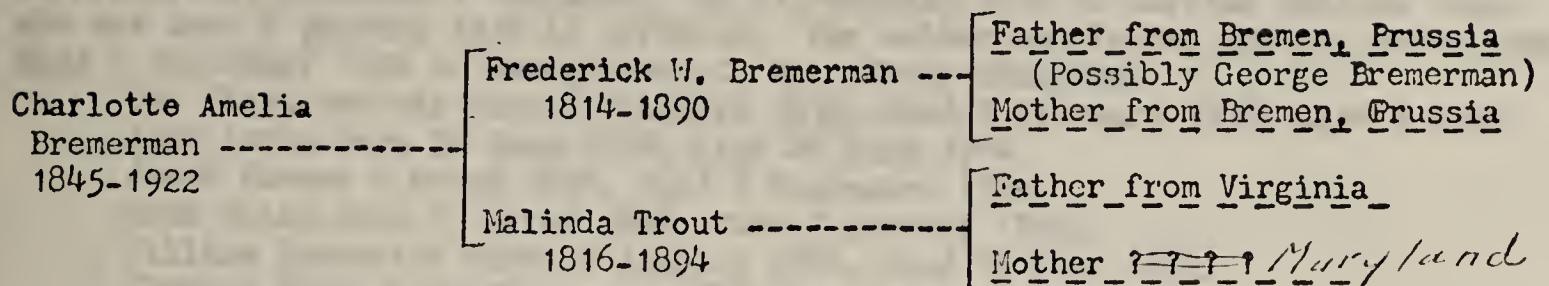

Several descendants of John Edwin refer to him as living in Wicomico County, Maryland. During the era under investigation, the county was Somerset as Wicomico was not formed until 1867.

John Edwin was born in Sharpstown, Maryland. Local tradition has it that Sharpstown was named after Horatio Sharpe, famed colonial governor of Maryland. The town which was incorporated in 1854 lies in the northwestern part of Wicomico County, originally Somerset County, on the Nanicoke River, close by the Delaware Line.

In the History of Western Maryland by Scharf, Volume 1, page 608 is a discourse on New Market Churches, as follows: The Methodist Protestant Church organization and edifice was erected in 1831. Up to 1846 it formed a part of Pipe Creek Church Circuit. Its pastors from 1831 to 1881 included in 1867, John E. Darby, Assistant. This church is on a circuit of eight congregations, one of which is New Market. Total membership of the circuit 514; value of church property, $14000. In view of the fact that Charlotte Bremerman was for many years a resident of New Market we could conclude that the New Market Church is where John Edwin met her which culminated in their marriage in 1869.

Your writer is of the opinion that John T., Richard P., Benjamin T. and possibly a William Darby are brothers. This belief is causing research to be done in Salisbury, Maryland for a will of Thomas Darby, grandfather of John Edwin.

Elisha Wilson born 23 December 1858, died 8 March 1859 aged 2 months 13 days.

FREDERICK W. BREMERMAN born 27 May 1814 in Baltimore, the son of _____ and _____ Breberman. He died in Indianapolis 20 November 1890 and is buried in Frederick, presumably Maryland. On 11 February 1834 he married Malinda Trout who was born 6 January 1816 in Maryland. Her mother and father are not known. She died 5 September 1894 in Georgetown, D. C. Their children:

Our first son was born 2 February 1835, died 7 February 1835, aged 5 days.
John Lewis born 30 June 1836, died 26 July 1914.
Jacob Harmon 8 March 1838, died 6 September 1906.
Anne Eliza born 17 March 1840, died 7 January 1916.
William Frederick born 26 January 1842, died 17 June 1856.
Charles Edwin born 20 August 1843, died 27 July 1921.
CHARLOTTE AMELIA born 19 April 1845, died 7 August 1922.
Thomas Henry born 12 July 1847, No death date given.
Laban Trout born 25 October 1849 in Baltimore, died 31 March 1922.
James Howard born 4 November 1851, died 31 December 1918.
Otis Emory born 26 February 1854, died 21 June 1854.
Malinda Sabina born 24 May 1855, died 11 November 1861.
Elisha Wilson born 23 December 1858, died 8 March 1859.

Frederick Breberman lived in Indianapolis in 1880. The 1880 census states that his parents were born in Bremen, Prussia. Our family tradition says that he was born a few months after his parents came to this country. Unfortunately, Baltimore as a point of entry did not keep ship's lists of immigrants until 1820, so the parentage of Frederick cannot be found in ship's lists if he was born in Baltimore in 1814. Search has been made in Baltimore city directories from 1813 to 1820 and for a will of any Breberman in Baltimore and Baltimore County, all with no results.

The 1820 census of Baltimore City and County have been read in which was found only one name remotely resembling Breberman and that was George Brannaman or Bramaman who in 1820 had two sons and two daughters all under the age of 10 years.

The bible of Frederick and Malinda states they were married by a minister of Frederick County, Maryland. This was 1834. No Bremermans are found in the 1840 census of Frederick County. However, the 1850 census of the District of New Market, County of Frederick lists Frederick as a merchant worth $1200 and the names and ages of his wife and children. The 1860 census of the same district lists him as a merchant with real property worth $3000 and personal property worth $2000 along with the names and ages of his wife and children. So we know this family resided in New Market, Maryland between 1850 and 1860. It has been assumed that they lived in New Market in 1845 at the time of the birth of our ancestor, Charlotte Amelia. However, the family bible states a younger brother was born in Baltimore in 1849. So from that we just are not certain as to the birth place of Charlotte.

Our family tradition states that Frederick had sons on both sides of the Civil War. Search has been done on all Civil War records of Maryland without finding a Breberman listed in any military organization. However, they could have been members of military organizations of neighboring states.

Family tradition states that Frederick was a merchant, the owner of a cooperage shop and a holder of slaves. When the slaves were freed they desired to continue working for him but he could not afford to pay them so had to let them go which they were reluctant to do. This could have been part of the reason he moved some of his family to Indianapolis in the mid 1860s.

Ersel (Darby) Pettijohn, grand daughter of Charlotte states that her grand mother often spoke of her Wright relatives, mainly, Uncle Joe Wright. He was an Uncle by marriage only. The father of John Edwin, husband of Charlotte, and Joseph Wright married sisters. Note page 4.

You will note in the bible record of Frederick and Malinda that the family seemed to have quite an affinity for Frederick County, Maryland, Baltimore and Georgetown, D.C. now a part of Washington, D.C.

Research will continue on the Bremermans.

Grace Roberts, born 2 December 1872 in Ancona, Illinois.

Carl Edwin, born 1 December 1874 in Ancona, Illinois.

Anna D., born 23 February 1876 in Sperry, Iowa.

Ray Philip, born 2 December 1878 in Ancona, Illinois.

Lee Lawrence, born 24 November 1881, in Sperry, Iowa.

George Roy, born 30 November 1882 in Table Rock, Nebraska.

Ross Hartwell, born 10 June 1884 in Table Rock, Nebraska. Died at the age of four months and is buried in Table Rock, Nebraska.

John Edwin Darby was a life long Methodist Protestant minister. He began his preaching in 1865 at the age of 25 years. In "Lewis's Historical Record of the Maryland Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church" are found the following notations as to the assignments of Rev. Darby: 1865 with the President; 1866, Bedford Assistant; 1867, Frederick Assistant; 1868, Patomac; 1869, Stewarts-town; 1870-71, Clarksville; 1872-73, loaned to the Mission Board; 1874, transferred but no mention as to where he was transferred. The Maryland Conference Record states that John E. Darby was ordained deacon at the annual conference held in Baltimore, 1868. He was ordained elder at the annual conference held in Westminister, 1871.

John Edwin and Charlotte left Maryland in 1872 and settled in Ancona, Illinois where he probably headquartered while preaching in several Illinois towns under the Mission Board. Their second and third children were born in Ancona. They moved to Sperry, Iowa in 1876 where their fourth child, Anna, was born. Family tradition says that in Sperry he was a constable and Justice of the Peace. In 1878 they moved back to Ancona, Illinois where their fifth child, Ray, was born. John Edwin is listed as a member of the Northern Illinois Conference in 1878 and was assigned to a church in Vermillion. In 1879 beside his name is written, 'without appointment at his own request'. The same statement is used for the year 1880. Beside his name in 1881 it reads, 'removed by certificate'. So he and Charlotte must have moved back to Sperry, Iowa about 1879 as their sixth child, Lee, was born there in 1881. In 1882 he moved his family to Table Rock, Nebraska where their last two children were born. In 1892 the family moved to Furnas County, Nebraska where he preached and did some farming with the aid of his sons. Later we find them living and preaching in Kearney, Nebraska. After retiring from the ministry he and Charlotte moved back to Table Rock, Nebraska where they spent their remaining years. On his birthday 9 November 1922 just before his death on the 21st, he wrote, "I have preached the gospel since 1864, in ten different states and 17 counties of Nebraska. I have always loved to preach above anything I have ever done. Had I my days to live over, I would preach the gospel of Christ. This is all. Someone else can fill this out when I am gone. I hope to die in the triumph of faith, so good-bye to all, till we meet in that beautiful morning". John E. Darby.

John Edwin's wife, Charlotte, was a homemaker, devoting her time to her family as well as assisting in the ministry of her husband. During her later years she took an active interest in the Christian Home for children and aged women in Council Bluffs, Iowa, giving her time, money and labor. On Thursday before her death she had her daughters send a beautiful quilt she had just finished to the home, with the message it was the last she could do. She realized her work was done and calmly made all the arrangements.
